

ENGINEERING
PERFORMANCE

Risk Mitigation

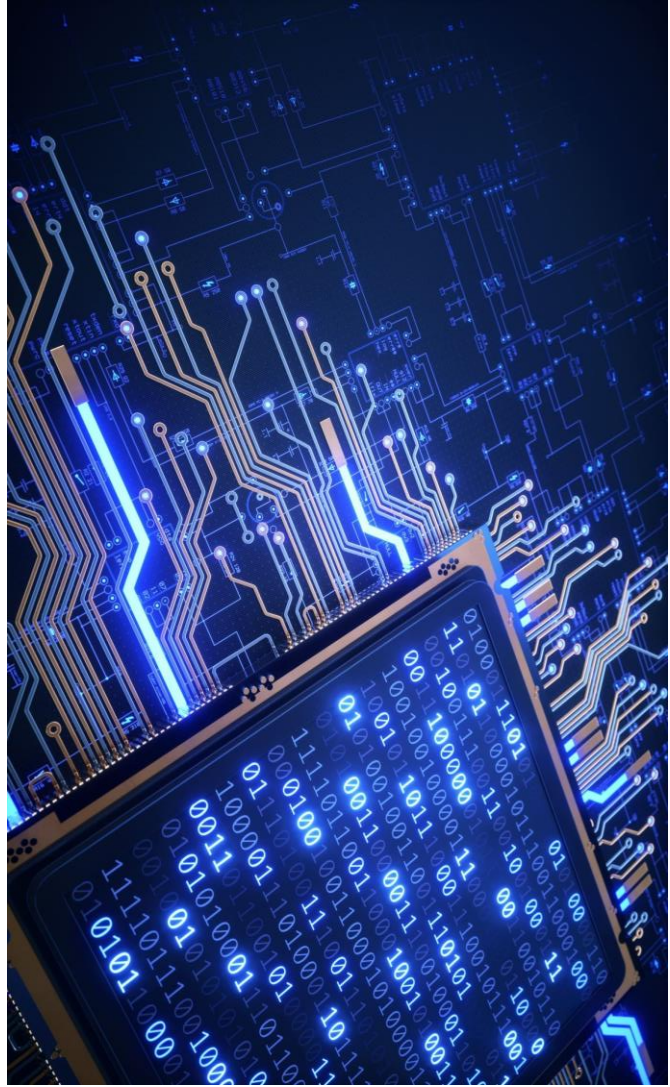

Built to consider all environmental factors contributing to potential vulnerabilities

Quality & Validation

Designed to meet everchanging quality and validity standards across multiple regulatory agencies

Prioritization

Designed to help advise on where to focus resources first to help eliminate the most pressing concern within your risk tolerance philosophy

CYBER SECURITY ASSESSMENTS

AGILITY | FLEXIBILITY | EFFICIENCY

Huffman Engineering, Inc.'s vast experience with both industrial manufacturing and utility systems and institutional knowledge of both the IT and OT space proves a critically valuable asset in identifying vulnerabilities and risks in an organizations information systems and infrastructure. Their holistic approach to risk mitigation, compliance, prioritization, security and still maintaining reliability and efficiency on your primary systems is an investment worth making to afford you:

- Expertise on both the IT/OT side of technology, hardware and software
- Understanding of the latest compliance requirements & ISA Standards
- Lens and advice on prioritization of security investments to allocate resources effectively
- Continuous monitoring of your primary systems
- Identification of potential security breaches and a plan to mitigate those risks